Overall rationale and objective	At Old Park School, we are unique. Music is central to the life of our school: it is our heartbeat – where everything and everyone comes together with a common link, a common goal. Most day in school, you will see some form of music education happening. Through music education, we aim to inspire children, increase aspirations, relieve stress, improve concentration, communication and listening skills, build creativity and give all children a chance to succeed.
Music curriculum at Old Park	The In Harmony project at Old Park provides specialist music education, where EYFS and Year 1 children receive a weekly lesson, which covers all elements of the music curriculum and all children from Y2 to Year 6 learn an instrument and play in one of our orchestras. At present this programme is funded and all instrument lessons are provided free of charge. All children in school receive opportunities to sing in musicianship lessons and in other subjects across the curriculum. These sessions are led by Old Park teachers. Links Telford and Wrekin Music service The Music Partnership: Entrust, City Music and T&W Birmingham Conservatoire MusicShare/Entrust – Telford Sings Armonico Consort – Opportunities to sing at Albert Hall MusicShare and Armonico amateurs visit and sing with OP children CPD Opportunities within The Music Partnership Teachers at OP upskill through attending all music activities that take place within school. Staff learn alongside the children – participating in singing activities and orchestra – playing an instrument. On occasions, some staff will undergo training sessions to support instrument maintenance and the tuning of string instruments. Regular updates with IH staff and music co-ordinator to discuss future plans, events, monitoring and lesson evaluations. Orchestra and Ensembles Y2 – Y6 have a year group orchestra. Telford In Harmony Youth Orchestra Telford In Harmony Youth Ensemble KS2 Choir Performances All children have opportunities to apply their learning by participating in performances both in and out of school. Children are assessed ongoing through lessons by instrumental teacher and observations made through musicianship. Formal assessment is completed during the summer term.
